

TENNESSEE GENERAL ASSEMBLY
FISCAL REVIEW COMMITTEE

FISCAL NOTE

SB 1382

February 23, 2021

SUMMARY OF BILL: Authorizes Community Oversight Boards (COB) the power to issue subpoenas or subpoenas duces tecum. Specifies that disobedience to such subpoena issued may result in the application to the circuit or chancery court of the county to compel compliance.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

NOT SIGNIFICANT

Assumptions:

- Revising statutory parameters regarding the authority of a COB to authorize the issuance of subpoenas or subpoenas duces tecum as to any matter which is a proper subject of inquiry by the board will not result in any significant fiscal impact to state or local government.
- Pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. § 4-5-311(b), in case of disobedience to any subpoena issued and served or to any lawful agency requirement for information, the agency may apply to the circuit or chancery court of the county or to any judge or chancellor, for an order to compel compliance with the subpoena or the furnishing of information.
- Any increase in caseloads to courts can be accommodated within existing resources without an increased appropriation or reduced reversion.
